INDIA LIVESTOCK SHOW 2027

The India Livestock Show is an annual event held at the Codissia Trade Fair Complex, Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu. This exhibition showcases a comprehensive range of products and services focused on livestock breeding. India Livestock Show is rapidly emerging as the largest and most influential among South India. Our focus on innovation, sustainability, and regional market trends stands out due to its sheer market size, consumption patterns, and rapid industry transformation. Being South India's one of the largest Livestock Industry, the country's Livestock sector is witnessing unprecedented growth, driven by urbanisation, rising disposable income. India Livestock Show is setting the stage for South Indian Livestock leadership, offering insights, partnerships, and innovations that will shape the future of Livestock nationwide. Coimbatore, known as a major Industrial and Agriculture hub, provides an ideal backdrop for the ILS, granting access to one of Asia's largest and most dynamic markets. The event primarily emphasizes key areas such as animal husbandry equipment, feed production, veterinary products, agricultural technologies, and various processing and storage solutions. This strategic focus caters to the growing needs of the agricultural sector, which plays a crucial role in India's economy. At India Livestock Show, visitors can explore a vast array of products, including advanced machinery and systems for animal feed production, state-of-the-art incubation technologies, and a variety of veterinary drugs and biotechnological solutions. This event also features essential laboratory equipment and diagnostic instruments, as well as innovative storage solutions for seeds and feed.
